Morty and his friends didn't show up for dinner. So everybody in the castle is searching for them. What has happened? Perhaps they all have changed into incy wincy spiders. Put the letters into the squares. The grey squares tell you what has happened.

Welcome Home!

The people in Ivy Bridge have welcomed Morty and his friends with open arms. The village is decorated with garlands. Which way must the friends take to get to the castle?

Rachel's Family Photos

Rachel shows Morty some photos of her family. Which photos show her parents, grandparents and her aunt Hazel?

- Aunt Hazel wears a hat, a jacket but no glasses.
- Rachel's mother wears a blouse and has got a pony tail.
- Rachel's father wears glasses but has no moustache.
- Her grandmother wears a T-shirt and a necklace.
- Her grandfather wears a shirt and has a moustache.

The Great Banquet

In the evening there is a banquet for the guest from the future. Good table manners are very important: You must wash your hands before dinner. You must not spit in your cup. You must not blow your nose into the table cloth.

There are three things on the table that do not belong in the Middle Ages. Can you find them?
